NEWS - POETRY IN DIGITAL MEDIA

- Poetry on radio

London's art community radio station Resonance FM has a weekly poetry show called Penned in the Margins, presented by Tom Chivers. The show is on every Sunday from 1.30 to 2pm and features live performances, interviews, features, news, and gigs. Guests have included David Harsent (Forward Prize Winner), Roddy Lumsden (Bloodaxe), and Lemn Sissay (Mancunian performance poet). Unless you live within a 5-mile radius of Resonance FM's London base, you won't be able to pick this up on your radio, but you can tune in via the internet on <http://www.resonancefm.com/>.

- Poetry on TV

Stockton's Writers' Cafe is broadcasting their next next event on internet TV. The night will include the Jingling Geordie Keith Armstrong accompanied by Saxophone genius Steve Windross, local performance poets Trev Teasdel, Katie Metcalf, Dominic Windram, and Brian Morton, film shorts by Shaun McKenna, Marion Husband reading short extracts from her latest novel, and music by Knitwear and others. The Writers' Cafe will begin at 7.30pm on Wednesday 19 April. To listen, go to <http://www.writerscafe.org.uk/> and click on the webcast button.
