NEWS

-Rufus Honch weblaunch: A Black Hole Is not Nowhere (<http://rufushonch.blogspot.com/>)
From the creator of Harrier Jasmin comes the third collection of Rufus Honch, a York poet whose achievements have often been eclipsed by his troubled marriage to Elkie Muir (Sylvia Plath's potholing companion) and the cannibalistic flavour of some of his later work. To pick through the estate of Rufus Honch (R.I.P), go to <http://rufushonch.blogspot.com/>. There should be around 20 poems, some very short, most you'll want to forget and go on forgetting, time after time.

-CreatO!vate Summer's Day (www.creatovate.com)

For our summer party we are bringing together a cavalcade of performances, invigorating poetry, mouth watering music, side splitting comedy, but as always we will be featuring the Disability Arts in the event fabric. A day long festival, with events in the daytime at the botanical gardens cafe (from 3pm), a little jazz in the evening to whet our whistle for the main event... a collage of expression in the cafe of the Showroom Cinema starting at 8pm. For full details, contact <rebecca_virgo@hotmail.com> or call 07772 371 986.
